Reaching Teens: Empowering
Youth-Serving Professionals

Are you looking to make a lasting impact on the lives of the teenagers you serve? Join us for this practical discussion led by Christina Lennon. She'll share how her team created a training program to help youth-serving professionals solve these issues.

- Learn effective strategies to build a positive culture where teens feel heard, safe, and valued.
- Gain insights into how to help teens overcome obstacles, reach their full potential, and build resilience.

Don't miss this opportunity.

2024 YOUTH PROTECTION SEMINAR

ORGANIZATIONAL PREVENTION AND PROCESSES FOR DISCLOSURE

Developing a Community in Youth Protection

The Youth Protection Seminar is presented to organizations and individuals who work with youth, including educators, coaches, community leaders, law enforcement, and others. The purpose is to inform, collaborate, and develop leadership champions working with a wide range of professional and community speakers.

Continuing education is available through the LPCA of Georgia and post credit available for law enforcement. The keynote message will come from a panel of survivors and those they first disclosed to, and will be co-moderated by Andrew Schoppe, Founder and President of the Golden Rule Partners, and Jason Baldrige, Director of Experience and Safety for the Atlanta Area Council, BSA. Twelve breakout sessions covering a range of topics that range from the process of disclosure, youth-on-youth/peer-on-peer abuse, the cost of abuse and the societal impact of prevention, and more.

"Please save the upcoming date of October 10, 2024, for the next Youth Protection Seminar. Join us as we work to maintain safe environments and communities for our future leaders."

Reaching Teens

With the endorsement and support of Dr. Ken Ginsburg, author of Reaching Teens, Wellroot has developed a training series that equips youth-serving professionals to address various behavioral risks and mental health issues from a strength-based perspective. Drawing from the rich content of Reaching Teens, the training integrates a trauma-sensitive model and reflects Dr. Ginsburg's expertise in promoting positive youth development.

2024 Training Dates

September 19	Virtual
October 24	Virtual
November 8	Virtual

Session Descriptions

Session 1 - Understanding Teenagers & Trauma
Explore how life experiences and trauma shape the developing brains of adolescents. Learn how understanding the teen brain and leveraging this knowledge is a starting point to building strength-based relationships with teens.

Session 2 - Preparing Ourselves as Practitioners
Master the language of resilience and how demonstrating radical calmness can help teens manage stressful situations. Explore co-regulation and gain strategies to support self-regulation in teenagers.

Sessions 3 - Communicating Using a Strength-based Approach
Learn practical, strength-based communication skills to build resilience and independence in teens. This session also provides strategies to help teens cope with stress.

Session 4 - Sustaining Success
Learn what compassion resilience is and how to develop it to achieve professional longevity. This session gives practitioners self-care and resilience-building strategies to avoid burnout.

Training Schedule

Session 1	9:00 am - 10:30 am
Session 2	10:45 am - 12:15 pm
Session 3	1:00 pm - 2:30 pm
Session 4	3:00 pm - 4:30 pm

Each session has been approved for 1.5 Core CE hours by the Georgia Society for Clinical Social Work.
